8.2 Applicants only need to submit the original and one copy of the supporting documents required in the list of supporting documents listed in Part 11 of the "Application Form" on the day of interview. Without required supporting documents, the application will be delayed or not processed.

- 8.3 Our staff will verify the applicant's information and application eligibility. The applicants who are eligible initially will receive the application number via SMS, which can be printed or archived by the applicant for future reference or inquiries; Lots will be drawn according to the application number and interview will be arranged. Our staff will also notify unqualified applications via SMS and return the applications.
- 8.4 As it is expected to have a large volume of applicants, we will enter the interview selection by drawing lots. Initially eligible applicants will be drawn lots to list the interview order. The top 15 of 1-person households and the top 15 of 3-person households will be arranged for interviews. Interviews will be arranged according to the sequence number.
- 8.5 The results of the draw will be published on our website: <http://socialhousing.sjs.org.hk>, and the interview sequence number of the draw result will be notified by SMS. Our staff will also notify the applicant of the interview date and time by SMS.
- 8.6 Applicants attend the interview, and the social worker of St. James' Settlement is responsible for assessing the applicant's personal or family needs with professional judgment and scoring the applicants and their families in accordance with the "Selection and Evaluation Criteria". If the applicant is absent from the interview without prior notice, the application will be cancelled.
- 8.7 After passing the interview, home visits will be arranged if needed. Our staff will follow the "Selection and Evaluation Criteria" to verify whether the information provided by the applicant, including the living condition fulfills the requirements and scoring standards. If the applicant's living condition is found to be inconsistent with the declared information, our staff has the right to adjust the score, and its position will be filled by the person with a higher score in the interview.
- 8.8 After summarizing the scores of all applicants, our staff will start with the qualified applicants with the highest scores and invite applicants to draw and allocate the units one by one until the quota is full.
- 8.9 After all units have been allocated, applicants who have been interviewed and passed, and have lower scores, will automatically enter the waiting list. When there is a turnover of units, the applicant with higher scores in the waiting list (for those with the same score, lots will be drawn to determine the order). Invitations will be made one by one until the quota is full.
- 8.10 When there is no applicant in the waiting list, a draw will be conducted again to invite qualified applicants for interviews and home visits.
- 8.11. All applications will be considered unsuccessful if no notification is received within three months from the date of application. Regardless of whether they are withdrawn or unsuccessful, all application forms will be discarded, and no further notice will be given; there will be a second-round application in the future if necessary.

- 8.12 All applicants have the right to withdraw from the application at any time during any application process and have the right to contact us at any time to understand the status of their application, and the license agreement shall prevail.
- 8.13 The tenancy period for all units shall not be more than two years. St. James' Settlement and the tenants will renew the license agreement every year. After the contract expires, they must move out of the unit; if the public rental housing is still not allocated, they must find another home by themselves.
- 8.14 If the applicant is currently living in another transitional housing program and the program will be completed within three months, the application will be considered.

9. Allocation unit

- 9.1 When the agency confirms the successful applicant, the result will be published on the website: <http://socialhousing.sjs.org.hk>.
- 9.2 The agency invites applicants to choose the starting date of the license agreement (commonly known as the lease starting date) according to the order of scores in the interview.
- 9.3 If the unit is allocated to an eligible applicant, the agency can only provide basic information about the unit and will not arrange visit to the allocated unit.
- 9.4 If the unit is allocated an eligible applicant, the agency will issue a "Move-in and payment notice" to the applicant.
- 9.5 The applicant must sign and return the confirmation slip of the "Move-in and payment notice" within the specified time.
- 9.6 Eligible applicants have only one chance to take up the unit. If they give up this opportunity, the application will be deemed cancelled.
- 9.7 If the applicant accepts the allocated unit, the applicant will be arranged to sign the relevant occupancy documents at the designated time.
- 9.8 Whether an applicant has a chance to be allocated a unit depends on the situation of the unit available for allocation at that time, family needs, family size and the scores of the interview evaluation and selection. In case of any dispute, the final decision of the agency shall prevail.
